Description (anglais) : Weavers strike. Mass meetings. Attacking factories (often deliberately leaving power mills untouched). Cloth and wept thrown into the canal. Attacking police with stones and missiles. Stoning factories before forcing way in. Shops entered and gutted. Some coaches stopped and money demanded. Sending delegates to other towns to spread strike. Covering windows of factories and coaches with dirt and mud. Mugging respectable-looking men. Loaves thrown out to appease mob (which it normally did - attacked only if not forthcoming). Levvyng at pubs and private homes. Contributions received with cheers and shared amongst the crowd.
